THANK YOU!

During the 2013 County election campaign, we were extremely grateful for the time you spent talking to Denise on the doorstep, about the wide range of local issues that concern you.

Denise pledged to push for the improvements and priorities raised by you, the residents of Staines South and Ashford West.

Denise communicated the issues as promised and requested the following:

- A safe crossing at Worples Rd, Staines
- Improvements to the roundabout and service road at Edinburgh Drive, Staines
- Road resurfacing in Stanwell Rd and Woodthorpe Rd, Ashford
- Improved cycle routes between Ashford and Staines
- A new official footpath between Ashford and Staines
- Tree maintenance and highways repairs across Ashford, Staines and Laleham where defects were reported and observed
- Pavement patching and resurfacing where defects were reported and observed

Denise will continue to attend police panel meetings and will maintain involvement with Resident's Associations.

Future highways defects and tree maintenance can be reported directly on the Surrey CC website and Conservative Spelthorne Borough Councillors ( Cllrs. Philippa Broom, Colin Davis, Penny Forbes-Forsyth, Mark Francis, Tony Harman, Isobel Napper, Jean Pinkerton, Marian Rough and Joanne Sexton) can liaise with Surrey County Council Highways on your behalf.

One of the greatest current issues of concern is the imminent Manor Farm planning application which will potentially blight hundreds of homes and have a detrimental effect on the lives of many residents of Staines and Laleham. It is vital that every household sends written representations to Surrey County Council to ensure that the strength of opinion is reflected and fully considered when the application is heard by the Planning Committee.

Denise is here to assist if required and can be contacted as follows:

I would like to sincerely thank all of the people of Staines South and Ashford West who took the time to come out and vote for me as their local Conservative candidate on the 2nd May 2013.

It has been an honour and a pleasure to have served you all for eight years as your County Councillor. Over those years I have been extremely privileged to have met, spoken to and worked on behalf of so many of you, acting on your suggestions and ideas and resolving your problems and I will miss the contact with you and the opportunity to support you all when needed. Being a County Councillor is not about title or prestige, it is about being trusted to represent local people and is a truly humbling experience.

I have tried very hard to build faith in local democracy and accountability, to nurture our sense of community, to show that much can be achieved together to improve our quality of life and have seen first hand that so many of you give so much of yourselves to help others. You have given me the encouragement to continue to build on eight years of service and my commitment remains. Thank you all.

Yours faithfully,
Denise Turner-Stewart

Draft EU referendum bill

David Cameron has said that if he is Prime Minister, there will be an in-out referendum in the next Parliament.

And as the Prime Minister has said, in this Parliament we will look at all options to underline the fact that our commitment to the referendum is absolute.

That's why the Conservative Party has published a draft bill to legislate in this Parliament for an in-out referendum before the end of 2017.

We will be working with James Wharton as he brings our draft bill before Parliament as a private member's bill.

We know there are MPs in other parties who also believe that the British people should be given a choice on our country's membership of the EU, and so we urge them to back the bill.

But if other parties do not back it, people will be able to see that only the Conservative Party is offering an in-out referendum and that the two other mainstream parties, Labour and the Liberal Democrats, oppose an in-out referendum.
